

Nelda Baldacchino

July 9, 2014

Nelda Ann Carter Baldacchino, 74, was called home by her Heavenly Father on July 9, 2014. Nelda and her family moved to Deer Park in 1964 and remained until 1995, when they moved to Montgomery Country, just north of The Woodlands. She was a long time employee of San Jacinto College Central, retiring in 2001. She utilized her talents of an inviting smile and caring spirit as a greeter at her church, Woodland Oaks Church of Christ. Throughout her battle with cancer, she always had that smile and never lost the faith of going to her eternal home. She was an inspiration to all, friends and family alike. Nelda was preceded in death by her parents, Clara Mae and John Judah, and a brother, Bucky Carter. She is survived by her loving husband of 58 years, Sam Baldacchino, children Lisa Geerman and husband, R.G., Vince Baldacchino, Karen Hopper and husband, Terry. Grandchildren Amber Ham and husband, Josh, Kevin Stockwell, Philip Stockwell and wife, Nidia, Brandyn Hopper and wife, Laci, Christopher Hopper and wife, Emily, and Aaron Hopper. Great grandchildren Skylar, Madison, Aidin, and Michael. Nephew, Michael Brandon, niece, Annemarie Dawson, and a host of cousins and friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the American Cancer Society or Olive Branch Ministries International (www.olivebranchministriesinternational.com) would be appreciated.

“ You were all so blessed to have this precious woman in your lives. You and the Lord were her life. I love Nelda. When we were together we were about 12 again. We giggled like two silly girls. It was fun and very uplifting to me. I will miss her for
