

Norman Stergio

August 9, 1945 - January 25, 2019

Norman honorably served in the United States Army in Fort Bliss El Paso, Texas during the Vietnam War. He retired from Houston Chronicle. Norman had a deep love for his family & Friends. In his early life he enjoyed playing basketball, baseball and football. He was a talented singer where he sang with a group in his spare time. He was a charismatic young man who would help others any chance he could.

Norman was a kind hearted, peaceful, loving man who enjoyed his family and friends company at his home or social gatherings. In his most recent life, he enjoyed being a grandfather to Raigan. He would sing, play and read books to her. He would often giggle at her funny remarks as he cherished the love she gave him.

He is preceded in death by his parents.

Joseph Stergio & Mary Cutrone & Sister Philly Stergio.

He leaves cherished memories for his wife Fereshech Angie Stergio, daughter Jennifer Stergio Hall, and Husband Bengamine Hall, Son Michael Stergio and Granddaughter Raigan Hall and Uncle William Strgio, Gorage Stergio, Aunt Judy Cutrone &

Anita Pandoliano Butrico

The Addison family and staff would like to extend our deepest condolences to Norman's family and friends.
