“W.S. Gilbert said, “It’s love that makes the world go round.” If that’s true, then without a doubt, the world is spinning a little slower with the passing of aunt Nuha. aka: خالتي - Khalaty Nuha or as Allison would say so affectionally: Teta Nuha). Aunt Nuha personified love in everything that she did. God sent aunt Nuha onto this world to spread love to everyone she touched.

Her smile lit up every room she entered. She was so special to all of us. She was so witty and funny. She opened her home to everyone. I can’t count the dozens of times that she hosted my mom and dad at her home. My best memories were coming down to Houston to visit aunt Nuha, laughing, eating and eating, playing cards, and eating some more. Everyone loved her and she loved everyone. We are all so blessed to have had aunt Nuha in our lives.

Although our hearts are broken by her passing and that we will all miss her so dearly; her memory and love will stay with all of us...generation after generation.

If there is any certainty in this universe, it is the fact that aunt Nuha has re-joined her love and husband...uncle Wadie in paradise. It is also undeniable that she smiling down on all of us and asking us to spread the love that she started.

May God rest her soul.

Rest in Peace my dearest aunt Nuha.

Our condolences and prayers to Nona, Nadra, Jamal, Jihad, and the entire extended family.

Love,

Sheila, Heather, Haley, and Chaz
