

Orfalinda 'Auntie' Villarreal

July 4, 1937 - July 20, 2024

Orfalinda Villarreal, known to most as Auntie, was born on July 4, 1937 to her parents Elijio & Mary Villarreal in Yorktown, Texas. She was the eldest of three children. Auntie moved to the big city of Houston shortly after graduation and began her life here. With only $5 in her pocket, Auntie was determined to make a life for herself here. After a few odd and end jobs she got a job at Southwestern Bell where she worked for 27 years. Shortly thereafter, she began a career at Texas Department of Public Safety from which she retired. After a short break and enjoying retirement, she got back into the working world and worked for 16 years at H-E-B.

Auntie loved to read old school love novels, travel, watch the cooking channel and talk about how yummy all of the food looked... but her real joy in life came when she spent time with her family. Auntie adored her family, mostly her great nieces & nephews. Her passing has left a void in all of the hearts of those who knew her and loved her, but we take solace in knowing she is reunited with her parents, her brother Benito "Ruben" Villarreal and all of her family who passed before her. She is survived by her brother Elijio Villarreal Jr, numerous nieces and nephews and a large extended family.

We love you to heaven and back Auntie, until we see you again!
