

Paige Hall Castor

December 31, 1965 - October 3, 2020

With our deepest sympathy, we announce that Paige Hall Castor of Tomball, Texas passed away after a courageous five year battle with cancer on October 3, 2020. Paige was born in Houston, Texas on December 31, 1965 and was the youngest of four children of Philip and Helen Hall. She lived in Houston until the age of twelve and had many fond memories of her childhood there. At that time her parents moved to Yoakum, Texas where she helped them manage the family convenience store they owned. She graduated from Yoakum High School and began a new venture in San Marcos, where she went to Texas State University. There she was a journalism major and one of her proud accomplishments was being station manager for the radio station at Texas State. In 1989, she graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Arts. Paige met her husband Paul at a family wedding in her senior year of college. Paige and Paul's first date was in Galveston, Texas where they fell in love and they knew they would be together forever. On August 25, 1990 they were married and shortly thereafter, they were blessed with two boys Philip and Hayden. Paige loved her boys and was a big volunteer for all of their school activities. She loved watching Philip play football and Hayden in Band. She loved living in Houston and watching the Houston Texans, Rockets, and Astros. One of her greatest memories was going to Game 5 of the 2017 World Series. Her favorite time of the year was Christmas. She loved decorating and spending Christmas Eve with Paul, Hayden, Philip, and Tori watching "It's A Wonderful Life". She also loved seeing her friends and family at her two favorite parties of the year, the Super Bowl Party and the Academy Awards Party.

Paige's love can best be described as being the most loving Daughter, Sister, Wife, Mom, Aunt, and Friend. She always put God first. Her childlike faith gave her strength and courage throughout her life. Her family and friends meant everything to her. In her last days, she wanted everyone to know how much she loved them.

Paige is survived by her husband Paul Castor, her sons Philip Castor and Hayden Castor, her parents Philip and Helen Hall, brother Scott Hall and family, brother Douglas Hall and family, brother-in-law Earl Castor and family, sister-in-law Coni Castor Fox and family. She is preceded in death by her brother David Hall and niece Samantha Hall.

WE

“ I love you Paige Castor!!! My last words to you!!!! No words were truer. Paige, you will be remembered as one of the best friends/sister anyone could ever have. Our many adventures traveling to far away places were the best but our most memorable times were spent right here in our neighborhood raising our kids and spending time with our many friends that are still our nearest and dearest. We will forever carry your torch for all our future traditions that you Paige played a tremendous part in creating to bring your friends together and celebrate special events and our children's accomplishments. You are missed, loved, and you will always be celebrated by many people whose lives you touched with your strength, that awesome laugh, your contagious smile and strong love you shared with us all!!! How will I survive without you here to keep my calendar straight, remember Terry's work schedule, and find my purse and phone when I set them down?
I'm sorry I made you sell programs and be on the board to manage flags in band, (sorry not sorry) ..one I never lived down but we sure got A LOT of laughs out of it! You made it so much more fun. I will NEVER forget your sense of humor and your laugh!!! We laughed a lot. Get the party started up there...we all will be right where we left off one day!!!!!! Rest in Peace my friend....and thank you for brightening me and my families life! It was a fun ride! Love you forever! WSB
