

Pamela Jo Phillips

February 25, 1954 - April 3, 2025

Pamela Jo Phillips, 71, of Houston, TX, passed away on Thursday, April 3, 2025, surrounded by her loving family after being transferred to Hospice the day before. Born February 25, 1954, Dallas, Texas, to Charlie Joe and Opal Lea Phillips, Pam was raised in Texas and graduated from Madison High School, Houston, Tx in 1972. In January, 1972, Pam married Edwin Droddy and they had three sons Eric Droddy, Born 1972; Steven Droddy, Born 1976, and Shawn Droddy, born 1984. Pam married C.D. Lively in 1989 and they moved to Commerce, TX, where Pam lived until moving to Houston in 2011. Pam was a lifelong, avid Astros fan, loved to socialize, country western music, dancing, fishing, and most importantly her pets and her family and friends. She retired in 2020 from Ben E. Keith after 20 years as Office Administrator in Commerce and Houston, TX. Pam was blessed with lifelong friends and a devoted, loving family who will miss her immensely.

She was predeceased by her parents, Charlie Joe and Opal Lea Phillips, her brother, Ron Phillips, and her pet, Fred. She is survived by her sister Patti Phillips Davis, husband Glenn; sons, Eric Droddy, wife Lisa; Steven Droddy, Jolene; Shawn Droddy, wife Megan; grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ Sending prayers to Pam's son's and Patti and family. Pam was a dear sweet friend since high school. We shared many times of mainly laughter some tears lots of talks. Pam had a hard life 😞 I'm thankful for Patti giving her a fun retirement in Nashville!! She so deserved that! Love and hugs Sharon Sulak Massey
