“ We all know many people, but few are actually "Worth Knowing." Trish was one of those rare people. She was a devoted wife, and cheerfully went with Pat to Russia and other parts unknown for a great job opportunity. I was privileged to be Pat's secretary when he was President of Kirby Exploration and know, first hand, that he was devoted to Trish as well. She was a loving mother and grandmother, a good cook, an excellent golfer and had a great dry wit that kept everyone laughing and smiling. My husband, Charlie, and I enjoyed many visits and Bridge games. Charlie also died with Alzheimer's so I fully understand the family's heartache. Rest in Peace, Dear Trish. I Love You, Marty Miles

“ I am proud to have been Patricia's cousin. Patricia, her two brothers, Bob and Sterling, Jr., her mother, my Aunt Mary and my Uncle Sterling, were warm hearted and had enough class for the whole state of Texas. My condolences to her husband, Pat, and to her children.
