

Patricia "Pam" O'Toole

October 8, 1941 - April 21, 2024

Patricia "Pam" O'Toole (nee Morris), born on October 8, 1941, in Ilion, New York, passed away peacefully on April 21, 2024, in Spring, Texas, at the age of 82. Pam was a proud graduate of Elmira College, earning her B.S. degree in science. She devoted her life to her family, embracing the role of a housewife with unwavering dedication, or as she affectionately referred to herself, a domestic engineer.

Pam was the beloved wife of the late Terrence Leo O'Toole, or Terry O'Toole, and is survived by her loving daughter Kathy Azcui and husband Ramiro, sons Michael O'Toole and wife Shelly, Pat O'Toole and wife Sally, Dan O'Toole and wife Sabrina. Pam was the cherished daughter of John Morris and Elizabeth Garvey Morris.

Her spirit lives on through her adoring grandchildren: Ashley (Chad) Kelley, Kimberly (Darrell) Ring, Taylor O'Toole, Brendan (Emma) O'Toole, Denise Azcui, Sean Azcui, Blake Azcui, Addy O'Toole, and Evan O'Toole. She also leaves behind great-grandchildren Roman Frazier, Lincoln Frazier, Dustin Ring, Lizzie Kay Ring, and Avery Kelley. Her spirit also lives on through one of her closest friends and extended family, Susan Bolton.

Pam's life was one filled with joy, laughter, and love for her family. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered for her fun-loving nature and her unwavering devotion to those she held dear. Pam now joins her beloved Terry in eternal peace.
