

Patrick Raymond Kelly

January 21, 2017

Patrick Raymond Kelly left this life on Saturday, January 21, 2017. Born in Wichita Falls, Texas on September 25, 1954. He was known as Pat to family and friends. He spent the last 25 years of his life working for Enerflex where he travelled the world as a technician and for the last 10 years worked as a salesman. He was a beloved husband, father, son, and brother.

He loved family, friends, life, pets, extreme sports and NASCAR. One of the highlights of his life was when his family surprised him with a opportunity to sit behind the wheel of an actual NASCAR and drive the track for six laps. In recent years, he enjoyed white water kayaking on the Animas River in Colorado, plane gliding in Colorado and extreme snowmobiling at South Lake Tahoe.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy Kelly, and son Josh Kelly of Spring, TX; daughter Courtney Wheeler and husband Wesley of Magnolia, TX; father and mother, Joe and Christine Kelly of Arlington, TX; three sisters, Barbara Kelly of Atlanta, GA; Cathy Stroup, husband Michael and daughter Whitney of Ft. Gibson, OK and Carolyn Kelly of Tulsa, OK and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

The family wishes to express their gratitude for the continuous outflow of love and support during this time.

The Addison family and staff extend our heartfelt condolences to the Kelly family in their time of loss.
