

Paul Clarence Mayes Jr.

August 24, 2012

On August 24, 2012, a celebration in Heaven took place as Paul Clarence Mayes Jr., of Spring, Texas entered into the Kingdom. He was born in Houston, Texas on January 22, 1933 to Paul C. (Buster) and Maidee Mayes.

Paul was preceded in death by his parents as well as his sister Doris (Dot) Crowder. He is survived by his bride of 56 years, Barbara Johnson Mayes, his children Paul C. Mayes III, of Austin, Texas, Laurie Womack and husband Steve, of Austin Texas and Lisa Joyner, of Houston, Texas as well as his beloved grandchildren, Whitney Cervenka Fronda and husband Matt, of Dallas, Texas, Michael Cervenka of San Marcos, Texas, Jeremy, Paige and Wesley Joyner, of Houston, Texas and Dallas Womack, of Austin. Paul is also survived by his sisters, Mickey Morgan, of Tomball, Texas and JoAnne Miller and husband Jack, of Fayetteville, Arkansas and many loved nieces and nephews.

Paul served in the US Marine Corps in Korea and later worked in the oil industry as a geologist. He was a member of Harvest Christian Fellowship. Throughout his life, Paul showed his love of the Lord by his ministry and caring for others. He never met a stranger. Paul loved people and in return was equally loved. It was well known that he cried when he was happy even more then when he was sad.

A reception will be hosted by Mickey Morgan, following the Memorial service.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Rescue the Children, P.O. Box 12341, Spring, Texas 77391-2341.

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Mayes family in their time of loss.

“ Paul practiced servant leadership. He was an excellent example of the way Jesus served others in His ministry. As a result, just like Jesus, Paul had people wanting to know more about his walk with the Lord. Paul was a good man and will be missed here on
