

Perry Ann Jeter

January 6, 2016

Perry Ann Doggett Jeter, 76, was born on July 23rd 1939 in Dublin, Texas and passed away in Shenandoah, Texas on January 6th 2016 at 12:20am. She was an LVN and practiced nursing mostly in geriatrics for over 20 years and brought comfort to the lives of her numerous elderly patients and their families.

Perry belonged to The Church of Christ in Livingston, Texas and was firm in her convictions always showing a good example to the people she met.

She was married on March 18th, 1960 and was married more than 55 years.

She began making a home for her husband and they had 4 children all while following her husband Will Jeter throughout the world during his Air Force career.

Perry is preceded in death by her parents: Denver Alexander Doggett Sr. and Eula Mae Doggett; brother, Denver Alexander Doggett Jr.; and granddaughter, Lauren Janette Watson.

She is survived by her husband, Will Jeter; children: Lee, Kathy, Angie, and Mark; grandchildren: Alexis, Zach, Kaitlyn, Silvia "Bubbles", and Allie; and siblings: Linda, Phillip, and Kelly. Perry is also survived by many extended family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Perry Ann Jeter

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM

“ Passed by the house where Perry Ann lived in Roanoke today and wondered about her. Sadly I found this website. She was a sweet friend in the mid 1950's. I remember her very fondly. May God strengthen each of her family members to live in righteousness looking forward to the day they see her in God's eternal heaven.

Elaine Peterson Teichman

ELAINE TEICHMAN - July 05, 2021 at 10:41 PM