

Rebecca Myann Webb Larson

July 19, 1949 - May 19, 2025

Rebecca Myann Webb Larson, 75, passed away peacefully on May 19, 2025. Born in Shreveport, Louisiana, Myann brought boundless energy to every room she entered. Her vibrant spirit, unending love for her family, and passion for tennis defined much of her joyful and active life.

Myann was the beloved mother of Jonathan Cobb and James Cobb, and is preceded in death by her husband, James Clarence Larson. She cherished her role as “Gaga” to her grandchildren, Jackson and Jace Cobb, and poured her heart into every moment spent with them. Her siblings—Melissa Freesh, Robert Webb, Candy Case, David Webb, and Sherry McCarthy—remember her as a spirited, strong, and loving sister.

A lifelong lover of tennis, Rebecca not only played with passion but also took great pride in organizing local leagues and events for her peers and for her children. Her natural energy and sense of community brought people together both on and off the court. She was known for her energetic spirit, her humor, and her unwavering devotion to those she loved.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 12th at 12:00 PM at Addison Funeral Home at 18630 Kuykendahl Rd, Spring, TX 77379. A celebration of her life will follow at one of her favorite restaurants, Willie's Grill & icehouse at 6815 Grand Pkwy, Spring, TX, 77389 where family and friends will gather to celebrate her life and legacy.
