

Rene Lopez

September 7, 1988 - December 23, 2021

Rene Guillermo Lopez was born September 7, 1988, in Los Angeles, California to a Nicaraguan mother, Julieta and Salvadoran father, Rene. He was raised in San Francisco, California with his two brothers Alvaro, Ariel, stepdad Jaime and extended family. He has lived in Spring, Texas for the last 15 years up until his death.

As the first-born of the family, Rene was a natural leader and competitor. He wanted to be the best at whatever he did. His childhood hobbies were playing basketball at the local park and playing video games at home. Rene was a kind soul and had a great sense of humor, so it was easy for him to make friends. He was a bright student in school and graduated high school at George Washington High school before he moved to Spring, Texas, he also attended to Klein Oak high school. Following his dreams to play competitive basketball in college he attended Lone star College in Conroe, Texas. During his college years he met his girlfriend at the time, Vanessa and had two children, Selina a girl, and Sean a boy with autism. For the next decade he dedicated his life to work, providing for his children, and being the father figure he never really had. He worked at Kroger in the Woodlands and Spring Cypress locations. He finished his career as a new car salesperson at Planet Ford in Houston, Texas. As years passed Rene matured to a hardworking and reliable person, serving others through the power of labor. He had a great laugh and smile and radiated joy from youthful heart. He never quit a job, never lost a fist fight, and once you were his friend you were always his friend.

With these manly qualities he stood behind everything he believed and said whether he was right or wrong and had unique insight and wisdom that enriched others. Rene was committed to the people he loved and genuinely cared about others like extensions of his family. Rene was passionate about family and always made it point to love others despite their defects. He passed away in a car accident on December 23rd, 2021. Rene will be remembered as Man's Man and laid the foundation to those who looked up to him, never to be forgotten by those who truly took the time to know him. Rene's memory will serve as a reminder for people to love one another and smile despite ones personal struggles, a sign of fortitude and strength, which he had plenty of. His legacy will never die, as it will build up this very community and family forever. He is survived by his two children Selina and Sean.

“ I remember that time you told me before I went to sleep one night to "Always give a hug and kiss before going to bed because you never know they might not be here tomorrow". I remember exactly what happened the night you died, every night when you would "put me to sleep" I wouldn't go to sleep I would always wait until you came back from the "gym" supposedly, but that night you never came back it was already midnight, I thought about calling you but I thought you would get mad at me for still being awake so I just went to sleep. Then I woke up that morning at 5 am to my grandma, I got so excited because I thought it was you, and that's when she hit me with "Your dad is dead". I had to cry the tears out my eyes while getting dressed to go to the hospital. I will always miss your smile, your goofy laugh, and your presence. I love you dad.

“ In April 2021, I pulled up at Planet Ford and saw a young promising man with hopes in high heavens and an honesty unparalleled to angels greet me at their lot. That day, I purchased 2 new cars and Rene made sure I was well taken care of. On Oct 9, other than my family members, he was the only other person to call me. We both lived in CA, were immigrants, and attended Klein Oak. In May 2022, I was in the market again for a car for my Son and an upgrade to my existing truck, and I only thought about Rene. As I called PlanetFord, I recalled the stories Rene shared with me of his challenges at Krogers and his pride as a father, but he was no longer there. Randy, his coworker, what had happened to Rene. Well, today is Oct 9th, 2022, and I am thinking of you Rene. RIP.
