

Rick Davis

August 27, 2016

Rick Davis passed away at his home on Saturday, August 27, 2016. Rick, a native of Beaumont, Texas was born October 17, 1974 and currently resided in Spring, Texas with his wife and children.

A graduate from the University of Houston with a BS in Political Science, Rick had recently been attending law school and was working on a law degree.

Rick was known as a big thinker who had an interest in all cultures, all branches of science and philosophy and could hold a conversation with anyone. He was an unabashed Libertarian and believed that we should dedicate ourselves to improving the way we govern our country. His successes include owning his own restaurant, working as a chef for Four Seasons and Minute Maid Park where he prepared meals for President Bush, rock and movie stars, and foreign dignitaries, as well as writing two published novels and being a loving father and husband. Rick enjoyed his time with his family, barbecuing, and listening to a variety of musical talent. Rick was a talented musician who found joy in introducing music to others.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Eugene and Earline Jolly. He is survived by the love of his life Eloise "Lisa" Davis; Daughter Autumn Davis; Sons Gavin & Diego Davis; Mother and Stepfather Dianne & Keith Rogers; Father Ricky Davis; Grandparents John C. and Geraldine Davis; In-laws Adolfo & Pearl Balli; Sister and Brother-in-law Cassy & Rex Reamy; Nephews Rhett and wife Valerie, Ryan, Ross, & Russ Reamy; Sister in law and Brother in law Laura & Gene Jolly; Niece Alyssa Jolly; Great Nephews Ashton &

Arthur Reamy; and an abundance of family and friends.

Honorary Pallbearers will include:

Michael Smith

David Joel Smith

Shawn Rossi

Peter Laskiewicz.
