

Rodman Griscom III

April 16, 1933 - December 1, 2022

Rodman Ellison Griscom III was born April 16, 1933, in Tucson, Arizona, son of Rodman Ellison Griscom Jr. and Elizabeth Galt.

The first born of 3 children, he grew up with younger brother, Galt, and sister, Madeleine (Maddy), who was the youngest. Upon completion of high school, Rod attended the school of engineering at the University of Arizona, where he met his future bride, Annette D. Schiff of Silver City, New Mexico. They were both pledged to Greek organizations, and were soon 'pinned', then engaged. They married September 1, 1956, in Silver City, New Mexico, honeymooned in Mexico, then returned to Tucson where Rod finished his education and graduated from University of Arizona.

Combustion engineering (CE) snapped him up right out of college, and soon had him traveling all over the U.S. on their behalf. During his tenure with CE, the couple were blessed with three sons: Rodman E. Griscom IV (1957), Stephen Andrew (1960), and John Lloyd (1967).

He would continue employment with combustion engineering until retirement. Rod was a lifelong golfer, a member at Inwood Forest country club, an avid hunter and fisherman, and generally enjoyed outdoor activities, including grilling and gardening.

Rod was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Annette; brother, Galt; and sons, John and Stephen.

He is survived by his sister, Madeleine (Maddy) of Tucson, Arizona, and eldest son Rodman IV, of Houston, Texas; daughters-in-law Elisa (Rodman IV) and Carrie (Stephen); four grandchildren: Samantha, Alex, Alyson, and Ian; and four great-grandchildren.

He will be missed by all who knew him, most especially his family.
