“ Thank you for being a blessing for when I did not know what I was going to do in June. Your willingness and ability to help when called is something that is rare to find these days. Just thank you for being who you were. You will be missed.

I would like to send my condolences 🌸 to my friend and her family. I pray and hope the good lord will comfort you and your family in these sad and difficult times. I know he will , stay strong my friend and know that your son is in the harms of our loving father who created us. He's gone but not forgotten, he will be in our hearts and memories forever. God bless you my friend, stay strong, sending you love and hugs. God bless 🙏🌸
