“ My friend Sam.

Whenever I asked how are ya? His reply was great! Sometimes Fantastic! Even if I knew he wasn't. Sam was..... business like, well mannered, quick witted, thoughtful in response, very direct. He seemed to do a great job of withholding most negative things. Even if you could see what he was thinking. Old school, with very traditional values of Family and Life. Sam was honest.

Through the many years I learned Sam is a strong Christian. Sam loves his wife and family with all his heart and soul. Sam seeks to do good in this world. Sam likes nice cars! And he likes nice people. Sam is good soul.

I still see Sam at the office telling me stories, I can almost hear his voice. I hear his advice, and I welcome it. Sam is my friend. I respect him, I respect the Life he lived, I enjoyed the close moments we shared, some happy, some sad. With God's promise I know Sam still is!

But for now..... I miss him.

Lisa, Karen, Vince, and all Sam's Family.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences in Sam's passing, though I know he's Happy.

“ Sam was such a wonderful Christian man and friend. I looked forward to my kiss on the head each week at church as he went down the row kissing his girls. Being “adopted” into his family and included in that sweet expression of love is a memory I will always treasure. His smile and the way his eyes twinkled always made you wonder what he was up to, and that twinkle and smile will be greatly missed.

“ There have been too many years for me to pick one memory! The last time we had a cook-out, he came and picked me up so I wouldn't have to drive after dark. He worried about the little things like that and he called to check on me when I had my cat put to sleep. He knew how I would be feeling after losing my best friend! Sam has been my friend and family for more years than I like to count! He will be missed!

“ Sam was an awesome Brother in Christ and very often quick humored soul. Once he knew I did alterations, he started bringing me things to shorten. He brought me a pair of pants and said, “I’ll have to give you a big tip because it’s not gonna take you very long to do those cuz I’ve got short legs!” He was one of a kind, sweet, endearing person! I will miss him dearly. God bless you Baldachino family.
