

Sandra Lea Holcomb Goode

December 31, 1951 - December 22, 2025

Sandra Lea Goode, 74, passed away peacefully after a life defined by devotion to her family and her friends. Born in El Paso, Texas, on December 13, 1951, to Iva Lea and William J. Holcomb, Sandra was the eldest of four sisters.

Sandra spent her early childhood in Kerrville before her family moved to the West University area of Houston. A proud graduate of Lamar High School, she soon met the love of her life, Earl Goode. The two were married in May 1973 and shared 52 beautiful years of marriage, welcoming their daughter, Robin, in 1974.

In her early career, Sandra combined her eye for beauty with her work at Fisher Florist, while also gaining a reputation for the wonderful cakes she baked for friends and family. She later transitioned into a successful career as a title clerk, serving several local dealerships for many years. In her free time, she found great joy and companionship in her quilting group and her HAPS (Houston Area Parkinson Society) group. She also enjoyed making dolls with her mother and father and traveling when possible.

To Sandra, her greatest title was "Grandmother." Since 2002, she found her greatest joy in spending time with her grandson, Jacob, and granddaughter, Abbey.

Sandra is reunited in heaven with her parents and her two brothers. Her legacy of love continues through her husband, Earl Goode; her daughter, Robin Vela and husband Dan; her sisters, Carol, Karen, and Cindy; her grandchildren, Jake (and wife Jazmin) and Abbey; and her soon-to-be great-grandson, Landon Lee.

“ I will always remember how clever we thought we were when you and I broke the stereo. We replaced the glass but forget the numbers. That was classic how Daddy reacted that he must be going blind because he couldn't see the numbers!! I have so many happy memories of you and you will always be in my heart. I love you.
