

Shanna Lee Rogers

August 22, 1950 - December 22, 2023

In loving memory of a resilient soul, Shanna, faced life's challenges with unmatched courage. She was a triumphant survivor, bravely conquering three forms of cancer (thyroid cancer, breast cancer and multiple myeloma for 10 years), proving the strength that resided within her. Despite the adversities, Shanna remained a beacon of unintentional humor, finding joy even in the toughest moments. Her life was a testament to simplicity and humility, embracing each day with grace and gratitude. Devoted to her family and church, she exemplified unwavering dedication, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of those she loved. Shanna's legacy is one of courage, laughter, and the enduring power of a humble, yet extraordinary life.

Shanna Lee Rogers (Morgan) was born on August 22, 1950 in Vernal, Utah to Arthur Morgan and Veda Gracie. At 19, Shanna married the love of her life, Craig Anthony Rogers on July 19, 1969. Together, they raised three children in Vernal until Craig's work brought them to Texas in 1983. She was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Shanna passed away peacefully at home in Houston, Texas on December 22, 2023 surrounded by her beloved family.

Shanna is survived by her son; Shon Rogers and wife Toni Rogers, daughters; Jamie McDonald and husband Robert McDonald, Toni Bushek and husband Nick Bushek, brother; Jess Morgan, grandchildren; Cole (Paige), Cameron, Cory, Morgan (Petie), Mandy (Jordan), Lauryn, Dominic, Brittany, Nathan, and Cheyanne, great-grandchildren Hallie and Brexton.

Shanna is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Craig Rogers and parents, Arthur Morgan and Veda Gracie.

“ We were Visiting Teachers and Teachees several times through the years. She loved her family with all her heart. She is a sweet, gentile soul who could fight harder than I've ever seen! I love her still. 💔
