“ Clay Breaux, my friend, my coworker, my roommate, truck companions, just a couple of southern boys sent to spend a WINTER between Fostoria, OH and Downers Grove west of Chicago 35 years ago!! Memories that will never be forgotten. What a rude awakening!! Very cold!! But I can assure you we made the best of it!!! RIP my friend and thank you for calling me just a few weeks ago to catch up some. Bless you and your Family for you are a very special person in my heart, Quig
