

Sidney Lee Wammack

June 16, 1946 - December 20, 2020

On Sunday December 20, 2020 Sidney Lee Wammack Sr., loving husband and father, passed away at the age of 74 surrounded by his family. Sidney was born in Waco, TX to Sidney Helm Wammack and Julia Wammack. Sidney, along with his loving younger sister Diane, was raised in Houston, TX. On April 26, 1968, Sidney married the love of his life Carol Ann Clark. They raised two boys, Chris and Sidney Jr. in Spring, TX. Sidney was a successful old school draftsman in the oil and chemical industry where his meticulous nature served him well and worked for S&B Engineers for decades. Sidney loved being at home with his wife, and working with his hands on projects at home in the garden, trimming the junipers and fixing family vehicles. He had a passion for woodworking and going to NASCAR races, but most of all he loved being with family. Sidney stood for the truth, loyalty, hard work and doing the right thing. Sidney was preceded in death by his father and mother, Sidney H. and Julia Wammack. He is survived by his wife Carol, sister Diane, sons Chris and Sidney Jr. Daughter-in-laws Michelle and Jennifer, grandchildren Mason, Hailey, Rain, Riley, Reagan and Christian. Sidney will be laid to rest on Monday December 28, 2020 at Tranquility Oaks Cemetery.

Services for Mr. Wammack will be private.

“ I'm sorry to learn of Sidney's passing in December. We were classmates throughout high school. He was a nice guy. I extend my condolences to his wife, Carol and their sons. The Circle of Life can be painful. Each year, I wonder where the years--decades--have gone, but those high school days are still within our hearts as we remember people like Sidney who shared those years, hopes and dreams with us.

“ Cypresswood has lost another founding father in Coach Wammack. For many of us he was our first T-Ball coach. He was a big inspiration to me and I'm sure others to volunteer as a coach to our own kids. Great man, great wife, great kids and great grandkids. I really enjoyed the times we spent recently at Reagan's soccer games getting to catch up and talk about the 80's. Miss ya Coach. Bob and the rest of the Woodward's.

“ Sidney (my Brother-in-Law) was a man of great character who dearly loved his entire extended family. I will always carry the fondest memories of our conversations at the kitchen table and his welcoming ways during holiday times (pre-COVID) hosting the entire family for many Thanksgiving events through the years. He will be dearly missed.
