“ To my uncle Sylvester, I will miss the conversations. We used to have the great advice you used to give me even if I didn't want it, but you always believed in me and left me with a positive outlook. You are truly missed.

“ My Uncle was a cool dude! While we didn't see each other often, I very fond memories of him. I would recognize his voice anywhere- no one sounded like my uncle. His eyes were very expressive and the he fluttered his eyes while rolling them-priceless. He has very definite opinions and didn't mind sharing them-wether or not you wanted to hear them. He was generous, fun loved his family. I regret not spending more time with him, but I am happy I had the time I did.
