

Tara Clayton

April 23, 1987 - July 26, 2020

Tara Marie Clayton was born in Schweinfurt, Germany. Her dad was a military man and his job took him to many places. They eventually settled down here in Spring, Texas. She met her husband through her church, and they were married for almost 6 years before she passed. Tara had different medical difficulties, which she didn't let slow her down, but in the end got the best of her.

Tara was preceded in death by her mother Darlene Ferguson.

She is survived by her husband Brad Clayton, her daughters Lilly and Rose Clayton, Her father Michael Ferguson, her brother Eric Ferguson and his spouse Elizabeth Ferguson, and their children Dylan and Julian Ferguson.

Tara was a hard worker, skilled Stylist/Barber, and with that skill she was able to set a standard of excellence that was appreciated not just by her customers but the company that she worked for. When you sat in her chair you not only received an amazing haircut but an experience that could not be matched.

She did all she could to make sure her family was taken care of both financially and emotionally and was a dedicated wife and mother. She put her husband through college so that someday he could take the role of provider and she can be the care giver that she desired to be. She was very smart and clever and enjoyed learning new things, especially if it furthered her carrier or increased the quality of life for her family.

There will be a viewing at Addison Funeral Home, Spring Texas. A memorial service will be held at her church at a later time.
