“ Tex had a way of encouraging me! His graciousness embraced you even when you just met him, even when you didn't earn it! Reminds you of someone else dosen't it. Tex was always excited to share with others, he was the one who told me about "studylight.org" which quickly became my favorite Bible study resource.

“ Just as Paul was Timothy's spiritual father, I consider Tex as mine. He taught me about Baptism when I was not a willing listener. I owe my obedience to the Gospel of Christ to his ability to teach the truth with love. I will miss him, but look forward to rejoining him in paradise in the future.

“ I remember Tex speaking at my grandmother's, Thelma Bilbo's, funeral. I do not remember everything he said but I do remember one specific observation that he had about Grandma Bilbo. He said "Thelma Bilbo was not a good woman. Thelma Bilbo was truly a Christian woman." I'll never forget how much that affected me and inspired me.

He meant so much to our entire family, he was a huge part of our lives

He was a huge part of my growing up years at Lindale..He baptized me and was the only preacher I knew for so many years. I grew up with his kids Mark and Hugh and his daughter Jo Ellen and never to forget his sweet wife Pansey. Heaven got sweeter today and he will be missed but I know he is up there singing and preaching just like we all remember him. What a joyful time it will be.

Tex had a singing role in our double wedding ceremony with Bill and Sue Lyon at Beacon Hill Church of Christ in San Antonio in December 1960. Beautiful man and beautiful voice. Rest in peace, Tex>

Two songs I'll always associate with Brother Stevens. "Beyond the Sunset" And "I Won't Have To Cross Jordan Alone." He performed my grandmother's funeral and sang both songs. He also performed our wedding ceremony in 1978. He was a great, Godly man. He served God in so many ways.

Tex married Margaret and I on April 15, 1965 at Lindale and has taught the gospel to many. Tex loved to sing and came to the Lake Houston church many Wednesday nights and led singing. Heaven's blessing today is our loss. What a blessing to have such great memories of a godly man. Elmer Hitt
