“ I have know Teri since middle school, but she was always such a sweet, kind, person.

We had lost touch over the years, but I also asked about her from her sister-in-law Marlo, and when she called me earlier this week to deliver the new of her passing.

“ Dear Joe and Christina,

We were so sad to hear about Terri's passing. When you lived next door to us in Cypresswood, I remember how much Terri loved to work in her garden and how beautiful your home and yard always looked. We will keep you in our prayers
