“ Words cannot even begin to express our sorrow. Your loss has left us deeply saddened. We would like to offer you and your family our deepest and sincere condolences.

Thomas was a special brother in law and a very special son in law. Thomas was caring, loving, thoughtful, creative, intelligent and humble.

I have always been amazed how my mom and Thomas could understand each other without speaking the same language.

We will always remember him and the cherish memories of Thomas will always be in our hearts.

“ *I have many good memories of Uncle Tommy and will treasure them always. One of my most memorable times is when he and Nataly surprised me at a recent birthday celebration of mine at The Woodlands. We had a great time together catching up and certainly appreciated their attendance! It seemed like no matter what, I'd always learn something new from Uncle Tommy after talking with him. Our Thanksgiving family get-togethers, family reunions, and our time with Chase, Spencer, and Vlada over the years meant so much to me and our family. God bless Uncle Tommy's family.

“ Thomas Hogan was a loving, caring father and brother.
He was extraordinarily devoted to the wellbeing of his parents and family.
He was very welcoming towards my new wife. He never missed her birthday, always sending her kind words and wishes.
It was fun growing up with him.
He liked to take stuff apart. He liked to go fast.
We didn't always see things the same but he always had exciting and interesting ideas.
He was often a protector and a leader.
I remember I fell once while running on a trail through the woods and Tommy immediately came back to check on me...

When my daughter was born, I told him “now we have to build her a go cart or a mini bike.” He said “I got everything, come on down.”
When I found out he had a swimming pool I told him “we want to go swimming.” He said, “I got everything, come on down!”

We will miss him dearly.

“ Uncle Tommy was someone I enjoyed being around at family gatherings. He was very intelligent, had thought-provoking topics to share at the table, and I always felt like I could get answers from him on technical matters. I am going to miss his personality, laughter, and fellowship. My prayers and sincerest condolences go out to Natalie, Vlada, Chase, and Spencer. And to his loving mother, my grandmother Hogan, that she may have peace in God's mercy and omnipotence.
