“ When I met Thomas, we instant moved past coworkers to true friends, I had just lost my great niece, and he would text or call to check on me to ensure I was doing ok, he talked about his love for wife and family often. I would look forward to seeing him in the office weekly to catch up on football, and life one thing that gives me comfort is knowing that he knew and accepted Christ and now he has gained his seat with the master. Rest well my TK brother. Your presence will be truly missed he was a true gentle giant. My Prayer is that his wife, sons and entire family find Gods peace in this. Love Always Tymeke

This is so sad, I knew Thomas when he joined us at HMH OPC 18. Indeed he was a good friend, when he move to corporate office we continued our communication. He will truly be missed. time to time I read his last email he sent me. See you on that resurrection day when the Lord call his children to life.

“ Thomas was a dear friend since he came to work with us at Methodist, we just clicked, from one TK to another. He was always kind and compassionate; he was very funny also. And of anything I knew, was that he loved his wife more than anything in this world. For several years now I've prayed for him and his family; Jenny and Thomas' names are on my list of "People to Pray for"; ya'll will remain on this list until I am no more. He was my friend and will remain. Until we all meet again one day in God's Heavenly Arms. I pray God's peace and strength to be with this family forever.

“ Thomas, I became friends at work he was sweet, kindhearted, and good person. Before we knew it our friendship turned into kinship. He was my brother, and I was his sister. I am going to miss him dearly our many conversations and texts but especially those everyday good mornings and encouragements. Although I shed tears because I will miss the physical presence of my brother I also smile because I know that he was a believer and had a relationship with God and that brings my heart solace in these times. To Jenny and his family, I pray God gives you comfort and strength in the coming days. Thank you for sharing your beloved Thomas with me.
