

Thomas Thogode

October 26, 1948 - November 23, 2019

Tom honorably served his country during the Vietnam War. He had a love for baseball but the military draft curtailed his professional baseball career. He also loved reading historical books on wars, but his favorite was the Civil War. He just couldn't get enough books regarding that war.

Tom had a great sense of humor and a very outgoing personality. You could be having the worst day of your life and he would tell one of his corny jokes or one liners and you just couldn't stop yourself from laughing. If there was laughter going on in a room full of people, you can bet Tom was right in the middle of it causing that laughter. Everyone wanted to hang with Tom because he truly was the life of the party.

He will be sorely missed by his family and friends, even his best buddy that gave Tom so much comfort and unconditional love, his dog Jack.
