“ Tracy, you were not just my best friend for 42 years but my sister. Granted we lost contact for a little while as adults but when we found each other again we became almost inseparable. Our children were grown so we would go out and have fun. Over the years you brought me out of my shell and showed me how fun life really was. You even talked me into singing kereoke with you (I was ready but I don't think my vocal cords were 😞). If I was ever down or having a rough day all I had to do was call or come visit you and things were suddenly better. You were the best friend anyone could ever hope to have and the sister every girl dreams of having. We say goodbye to you today but I know we will see you again one day. I love you sweet lady! You might be gone but never forgotten! You are forever in my heart!
Love always,

“ Tracy and I were like sisters. We laughed, did karaoke, danced, joked and we loved each other unconditionally. The best friend that I could ever ask for and will never be replaced. I am so saddened that she has lost this battle, BUT I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord! I know that she is smiling down on us and will forever be our guardian ANGEL! Tracy you have gained your wings....so soar high and know that I love you to infinity.
