

Vickie Diana Kline

October 27, 2014

Vickie Diana Kline, 60, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, October 27, 2014. Born August 3, 1954 in San Diego, California, Vickie was a longtime resident of Spring, Texas. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Margery Coffman. She is survived by her daughter, Kristina Phillippe & husband Bryon, her beloved grandson, Joseph O'Keefe, her mother Diane Hall & stepfather Jim, her sisters, Debbie Eubanks & Laura Druckhammer, and numerous other family members & friends.

Vickie was an old soul who loved classic cinema and music. Watching black & white movies, listening to old tunes, especially classic R & B and big band music, and sharing stories about her experiences in the entertainment & club industries were some of her favorite pastimes. She never met a stranger. She worked in the apartment management industry for many years, making many longtime friends along the way.

“ Mom,

I can't believe this is REALITY. How can this be true? This is like a HORRIBLE nightmare that I can't wake up from. It's ALWAYS been just you and me. There were no other siblings, no dad or step dad.....JUST US. Now, it's just me and I feel so alone

“ Vickie, you were a true friend in every sense of the word. I met you when you were 19 working at the Dome Shadows, I was in the band. None of the band members seemed to be too good at getting lyrics off of records we were going to use and add to our play!
