

Viola Collinsworth

November 18, 1923 - December 10, 2021

Viola Mae Paul Collinsworth, 98, went to be with her Lord and savior on Friday December 10, 2021 in Houston Texas where she has lived for the past 9 years. She was born on November 18, 1923 in Greenville, South Carolina. At the age of 14 she went to work at the Cotton Mill in the spooling room. She later moved to San Antonio Tx where she met and married the love of her life. They later made their home in Weslaco Texas where she was a homemaker and loved cooking for her family and friends along with hunting at the deer lease. Many of the family laughs were about the stories told of happenings and jokes played on each other while at the lease. After her husband retired they moved to Camp Wood Texas where they built their house themselves and she enjoyed helping care for their crop of pecan trees. She loved the Lord and asked Jesus into her heart and loved serving in the Methodist and Barksdale Methodist Church. After the death of her husband she moved to Houston to be closer to family. Preceding her in death are her husband Troy (Bill) and son-in-law , Pastor Doug Smith.

Surviving her are her two children Cynthia Ann Smith, son Troy (Cindy) Collinsworth, grandchildren Troy Swenson, Shawn Ozuna, Lindee Zappe, Tracy Anderson and Cody Collinsworth along with several great grandchildren and nephews.
