

William Clyde Rife

February 22, 2015

William C. Rife "Billy" was a bright, endearing and selfless man. He was known for his great wit and love of being a husband, father and grandfather. Billy was born March 10th, 1950 to William Howard and Francis Elizabeth Rife. He served honorably in Vietnam with the U.S. Navy as a Sea Bee and had a love for fishing, and watching the Dallas Cowboys.

On February 22, 2015, Billy completed his mortal fight and returned home to his Lord and Savior. Billy was preceded in death by his dear parents, William Howard and Frances Elizabeth Rife. He has parted from his friend, companion and wife of 19 years, Shirley Rife and his daughters, Michelle Delaney, Meagan Huddleston and husband Brian, and Melissa Bernier and husband Dustin, Jesika Rucker, and Son, Andre Melear. As well as his grandchildren, Mason, Harper, Gunnar, Brooke, Brendan, and Taylor who brought him such great joy. His loved ones and friends will celebrate his life at Addison Funeral Home.

To our loving husband, father and grandfather — our own personal hero — we will be loving you, always. And while his spirit and body have temporarily parted ways, he will be remembered in the hearts and the souls of his wife, children and grandchildren forever. The stories of his love and bravery will simply go on living.

“ Billy and I were 1st cousins. We spent a lot of time together when we were young. He was like another brother to me. So many sweet memories flood my mind when I think of him. We didn't have money but we were rich in so many other ways. May he rest in peac
