“ I want to share my relationship with my Cousin Yolanda. We’ve always been close even tho we lived i. Different a different city. We’ve been close since we moved from San Antonio, Texas to Houston way back in 1968. Her Mom and my Dad were sister and brother. So anyway we would visit each other as families do often . We always stayed close . Especially as I grew older I saw her more often . I will dearly miss her. My deepest condolences to her famly and extended families . May God wrap His Loving Arms Arms Around Her and Welcome Her Home. She will be well-taken I know. She is in the Best of Hands .
Love and Will Miss You ,
Your Cousin Dela
