“ Zachery Lawrence Palazzetti

“ I worked with Zach at Westpark Communications, both working the evening shift. He was eager to learn, very energetic and one of the funniest, kindest souls you'd ever want to meet. The way he would call me Ms Frances with a giggle always got me laughing because of some of the things he'd say. He had such a zeal for life that it was infectious, a true joy to be around.

My heart is still trying to deal with this because even though I was old enough to be his mother, he never treated me with anything other than respect and I am truly enriched to have called him a friend. I'll treasure those memories always and pray that the Palazzetti family and friends find solace in his passing. Rest in peace my dear friend. Frances Heggans

“ Zach was like a member of our family when he and my daughter were little. He would come over and stay for dinner many days. If Erica couldn't find him she would always call me and he would usually be at our house. We so enjoyed having him in our lives. He and Kennedy would make up dances and swim all day. I will never forget when she did not make cheerleader. Zach showed up at the door with a huge sunflower balloon to lift her spirits. His smiling face, infectious laughter, and sense of humor were a joy to experience. I know that he looking down on us and is at the right hand of the Lord now. No words can take away the pain of his family's loss. Remember it's not goodbye, it's see you later! Love, peace, and prayers to Ed, Erica, Kristen, Erin, and all his relatives.

“ I only knew Zach for a short period of time, but he was absolutely amazing. His personality was beautiful and he always there to lift me up when I needed it. He was so incredibly smart and taught me much of what I know about Acuras from our time spent working together. And past that, we had talked about him looking for a new job and him singing praises on how great I would do at mine. We had plans to get together soon and catch up in person instead of over the phone and I'm heartbroken that I can't do that now, but I have some amazing memories to carry me along. My heart and prayers go out to the family and I hope knowing that he made a difference in someone's life brings you some peace.

“ There are so many funny stories and good times that we had hanging out in the front yard with Zach. From the time he climbed the tree in our front yard and Erica had to help get him down to the time he wanted to get in the little kids “Flintstone car” because he said he could fit in it “after all Mrs Kelly I can get in it, I’m fun size”!! There are too many stories to mention but, I will cherish them all. He always came over with a huge, beautiful, contagious smile and a funny story. I truly enjoyed every time he came over. Our thoughts and prayers will be with his family, friends and anyone that was blessed to have known him. Rest In Peace my friend, you will be missed!

“ Love you so much Zacheria! So many great memories with you growing up. I couldn't have asked for a better friend to have so many adventures with. From wiggling your ears, to getting locked in our house by a crazy dog or just hanging out on our bikes all night. You were such a great friend even at 3 years old. You will be so missed, Pizza! So many crazy nicknames for you! Still can't believe you are gone. Our whole neighborhood will miss your crazy self. Fly high, friend. Until we see each other again!
